

RMA PRESENTS: A Women in Banking Event

Margaret DeMarino
Working the Room - Networking Skills for the Banking Professional

Tuesday, April 29, 2008

Carbone's Restaurant
588 Franklin Avenue, Hartford CT
12:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Cost: $25 for RMA Members, $30 for Guests, includes Lunch

Topic: Creating and maintaining a wide network of contacts leads to great business and personal gain. Networking, according to many experts, is "the most effective marketing tool today." Learn the traits of some of the country's most successful networkers, and discover how you can build a successful networking approach. This seminar will help you to overcome your reservations so that you can really work a room, be it a chamber function, a community event, a convention, or a conference. You'll get noticed, get leads, and get on your way to becoming a master networker.

Margaret DeMarino is a corporate trainer, specializing in the area of written and verbal communication, supervisory skills, administrative training, and customer service. Known for her "fun and functional" approach to training, Ms. DeMarino offers workshops to a wide range of clients including banks and financial institutions, manufacturing companies, state and federal government agencies, and many others. A former reporter, Ms. DeMarino holds a B.A. in Communication Arts from the University of Dayton and was a Fellow of the Yale-New Haven Teachers Institute at Yale University. She currently free-lances for the Hartford Courant.
